LA Shorts Fest
presents
Monthly Movies at the Derby

Welcome to LA Shorts Fest's Monthly Movie program at the Derby. We're glad to have you.

Because the LA Shorts Fest enjoys such high submission rates, we are unable to screen all the films that pass through our doors. To support more young filmmakers, we screen local filmmakers' work each month at the Derby.

The show offers a venue for networking and getting to know the directors with a Q&A session after the screenings.

As a reminder, this year's LA Int'l Shorts Fest will run from September 16 through September 22.

We hope you enjoy the show.

A Night to Remember (10 minutes)

Director: Dylan Haley

High fashion and highly dysfunctional... the stage is set at a Los Angeles scenester soirée where the cameras are flashing, the hi-fi is in the background and egos are bound to get crushed. The film presents a tragically "with it" world that yearns for glamour yet is all too likely to end up on the bathroom floor.

Boop! (10 minutes)

BOOP! tells the story of 12 dates over 6 months in 9 minutes. As Jon (Silas Gaither) searches for the perfect girl, his quest takes him on a series of romantic ventures—each more disastrous than the last. Until...

Diamond & Sphinx (12 minutes)

Director: Chris Cory

In this paranormal detective comedy, Harmony Sunshine, a passive, aggressive hippie, whose guru disappeared trying to contact the other side, hires Dirk "Private Dick" Diamond, and Sphinx "International Spy and Assassin" Brown.

Double Helix (15 minutes)

Director: James Sico

A veteran of Gulf War is haunted by a disturbing memory. He struggles to remember but soon finds that "his life depends on him not remembering what he thinks he saw".

John H. (5 minutes)

Director: Greg Zekowski

A comic short about Hollywood, Canada, and how one man makes a desperate last stand in order to save his film from relocation.

The Coo Coo Clock (14 minutes)

Director: Casey Rodgers

When a struggling screenwriter's labor of love is lost, he finds himself at the mercy of his mind. His journey for inspiration proves to be as trying as his grip on reality.

The Goth Next Door (15 minutes)

Director: Zeke K and Matt Johnson

A dark, comic romance about a lonely blind man who has his world turned upside down when a suicidal goth girl moves in next door.

SVEN the love dog in: Who Really Loves You? (8 minutes)

Director: Tawd B. Dorenfeld

A psychedelic DARKRIDE of SOUND, with a raunchy love story, and raw, panting interludes.
